

Hello all my pretty chickens,

Apologies if this is repetitive. I want to make sure as many folx as possible have a chance to come see any of the THREE things I have coming up in the next few weeks:

1. Macbeth is playing every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from now til Aug 26 at Shaking the Tree Studios! Produced by Salt and Sage Productions, directed by Asae Dean, with Bobby Bermea as Macbeth. I have a feeling reviews are coming out this week, maybe, and it'll be really tough to get tickets or... maybe not so much, who knows. But I'm very proud of this production and cast and crew. It's a full-throated, bloody and powerful production. I'm Macduff and I end the play with lots of blood on me. Please consider coming! Tickets (including discounts) at the link below.

2. We were going to perform this play in repertory with Titus Andronicus, an especially bloody and brutal revenge tragedy from early in Shakespeare's career. However, a tragic sudden death in the cast suspended our work on this show. To honor the work, we'll be doing a staged reading of the play this Thursday Aug 17 at Shaking the Tree. Tix at the link below!

3. Finally, on Thursday Aug 24, I'll be rehearsing An Iliad in preparation for a fall tour to prisons once more. Shaking the Tree, 7 pm, free, just please RSVP to me at this email. Seating is limited so please let me know ASAP. Please note that this is an invited dress rehearsal, not a performance, and that we're grateful for the support and collaboration of Salt and Sage Productions (for insurance purposes).

Much love to you all. Beware the thane of fife,
